CHAPTER TITLE AUXILIARY UNITS FIELD TRAINING UNIT	RESOURCES
SUBJECT FIELD TRAINING OFFICER	CROSS REFERENCE

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish specific responsibilities for the position of Sarpy County Sheriff's Office Field Training Officer (FTO).

II. Policy:

The Field Training Officer (FTO) shall be a deputy within the Road Patrol Division. They shall join the Field Training Program through a selection process overseen by the Road Patrol Division Commander and administered by the Field Training Unit Coordinator and Field Training Unit Program Supervisor. The FTO is responsible for directly supervising a trainee's daily activity and documenting his or her performance. FTOs report directly to the Field Training Unit Supervisor. FTOs additionally:

1. Complete Daily Observation Reports (DORs) according to the Standard Evaluation Guidelines outlined in the San Jose Model.

2. Review the phase syllabus with the trainee, ensuring all topics are discussed and documented.

3. Administer the appropriate phase's exam and record results.

4. Complete the End of Phase Memo.

5. Create and implement remedial strategies with Field Training Unit Supervisor approval.

6. Immediately notify the Field Training Supervisor regarding significant trainee deficiencies.

7. Attends annual in-service training, completes online continuous education and any other training assigned by the Field Training Unit Supervisor and/or Coordinator.

III. Selection:

A. FTOs serve as role models for trainees. FTOs are expected to develop the trainees' knowledge of Sheriff's Office Policy and Procedure, enhance trainees' skills first developed in the academy, and accurately document the trainees' potential ability to successfully perform as a solo deputy according to Sheriff's Office expectations. Potential FTO candidates must demonstrate:

1. Thorough knowledge of SCSO policy and procedure.
2. Self-initiation in daily shift activity.
3. Sound oral and written communication skills.
4. Minimum of 2 years of road patrol experience.
5. No Sheriff's Office documentation that suggests the FTO candidate is unsafe, unprofessional or a discredit to the Sheriff's Office.

B. FTOs shall be selected through an application process administered by the Field Training Unit Coordinator and Supervisor. The Road Patrol Captain shall oversee the process and forward the selections to the Sheriff or his designee for approval. Selection is contingent on completing an approved Field Training Officer course taught by a reputable trainer as determined by the Sheriff's Office.

1. A deputy applying for the position of FTO shall make written notification (email or memo) to the Field Training Unit Supervisor and include a written recommendation by the deputy's immediate supervisor.

C. Separation from the Field Training Unit:

1. The FTO assignment is on-going and FTOs may be removed from the Field Training Unit by:

   a) FTO request.

   b) Unacceptable performance as seen through DORs, End of Phase Memos, and/or trainee feedback.

   c) Failure to maintain the standards of their professional obligations to their Sheriff's Office assignments.

   d) Disciplinary actions, determined on a case-by-case basis.

e) FTO assigned to a different Sheriff's Office Division.
