CHAPTER TITLE AUXILIARY UNITS: CRISIS NEGOTIATIONS UNIT	RESOURCES
SUBJECT CRITERIA FOR CNU ACTIVATION		CROSS REFERENCE P-5000 HIGH RISK INCIDENTS P-5010 HIGH RISK INCIDENT COMMAND

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the activation of the Sarpy County Crisis Negotiations Unit.

II. Policy:

The Sarpy County Crisis Negotiations Unit (CNU) shall be available twenty-four (24) hours a day for emergency situations that may require the Unit's response. Requests for immediate activation of the CNU for high risk incidents shall be made through the High Risk Incident Commander (see P-5000 High Risk Incidents and P-5010 High Risk Incident Command) and/or by the Sheriff, Chiefs of Police, or designated representative thereof the agency requesting assistance. Other requests for the activation of the CNU shall be made through the CNU Commander.

III. Procedure:

A. Activation Criteria: The following are examples of emergency situations where CNU could be utilized. This list is not all-inclusive:

1. Armed/barricaded subject.
2. Hostage situation.
3. Suicidal individual.
4. Kidnapping.
5. Any other situation where the skills of a trained negotiator could be used to diffuse a potentially high risk incident.

B. Uniform for CNU Activation: When at all possible the required authorized uniform for CNU should be worn during a CNU call out

C. CNU Activation-High Risk Incident: Any supervisor may request the Sarpy County CNU during a high risk incident by contacting the High Risk Incident Commander. The High Risk Incident Commander (or the Adjunct High Risk Incident Commander) shall make an immediate determination regarding the need for CNU and shall have Communications notify the appropriate personnel (see P-5000 High Risk Incidents).

D. CNU Activation-Non-Emergency Situations: Any supervisor may request the Sarpy County CNU during non-emergency situations where there may be the potential need for trained negotiators. In most cases in which the Sarpy County SWAT is deployed, it is also appropriate to have the Sarpy County CNU respond. Requests shall be directed to the CNU Commander who shall determine the need for CNU and shall have Communications notify the appropriate personnel.

E. CNU Activation-Outside Agency: Requests for the use of the Sarpy County CNU in response to an emergency situation which come from sources outside Sarpy County shall be directed to the CNU Commander.

1. The CNU Commander shall determine if the CNU shall respond to the request.

2. The requesting agency shall be advised the Sarpy County CNU shall assume responsibility for making all decisions regarding the actions of the CNU.

3. The Sheriff, Chiefs of Police, or designated representative shall authorize the use of the CNU to assist any outside agency prior to deployment.
