CHAPTER TITLE AUXILIARY UNITS: RAPID DEPLOYMENT FORCE	RESOURCES
SUBJECT RAPID DEPLOYMENT FORCE STRUCTURE		CROSS REFERENCE P-5000 HIGH RISK INCIDENTS P-5010 HIGH RISK INCIDENT COMMAND

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish the direct lines of supervision and responsibility for the Rapid Deployment Force and to establish the chain of command.

II. Policy:

A. The Rapid Deployment Force shall be under the direct command of the Rapid Deployment Force Commander who shall have the rank of sergeant or higher.

B. The Rapid Deployment Force shall have a Platoon Leader who shall generally have the rank of sergeant or higher and who shall be under the supervision of the Unit Commander.

C. The Rapid Deployment Force shall have squad leaders who shall generally have the rank of sergeant and who shall be under the supervision of the Unit Commander and Platoon Leader.

D. The Rapid Deployment Force shall have assistant squad leaders and who shall be under the direct supervision of a squad leader.

E. The Rapid Deployment Force shall have members who generally have the rank of deputy who shall be under the supervision of the Squad Leader and assistant Squad Leader.

F. In the absence of the Unit Commander, the Platoon Leader shall be in command of the Unit.

G. Under specific circumstances, the Rapid Deployment Force (RDF) Commander may be under the command of the High Risk Incident Commander as provided in policy (see P-5000 High Risk Incidents and P-5010 High Risk Incident Command).

H. Each Rapid Deployment Force deputy shall be assigned to a squad or the Support Unit. Depending upon available manpower at an incident, deputies may be temporarily assigned to a different available position.

I. Deputies selected for an assignment to the Rapid Deployment Force shall do so on a part-time basis with, or beyond, the normally assigned duties of their position. As such, supervision for day-to-day activities shall be provided within the chain of command of those deputies' assigned divisions.

J. Participation of RDF members in RDF related training shall be contingent upon the approval of their division commanders and with timely notification of immediate supervisors. Overtime may be paid to allow attendance.

K. RDF members may be requested to assist the RDF Commander or his or her designee with tracking RDF equipment, the purchase of RDF equipment, the maintenance of chemical munition launchers, designing and implementation of training exercises, etc.
