CHAPTER TITLE GENERAL		RESOURCES
SUBJECT CAPTAIN (GENERAL)		CROSS REFERENCE G-5140 DEPUTY (GENERAL)

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to provide a job description for the position of Captain (General).

II. Policy:

The rank of Captain is a command level staff position responsible for the supervision and direction of an assigned division within the Sheriffs Office. Coordinates, directs and administers operational activities pertaining to all functions of law enforcement for the county. In addition, an incumbent in this position is responsible for performing all essential functions and possessing the knowledge, skills, minimum requirements, and abilities required of the ranks of deputy, sergeant, and lieutenant.

In addition to the essential functions outlined below, the captain shall also be responsible for specific functions related to his or her assigned division.

A. SUPERVISION RECEIVED:

The captain works under the general supervision of the Chief Deputy and the Sheriff.

B. SUPERVISION EXERCISED:

The captain supervises the duties of deputies, sergeants, lieutenants and other assigned personnel.

C. ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Plans, coordinates, supervises and evaluates an assigned division's operations.

- Creates procedures for an assigned division in order to implement directives from the Sheriff.

- Coordinates the information gathered and work accomplished by various deputies; assigns deputies and other staff to special assignments as the needs arise for their specific skills.

- Assures that personnel are assigned to shifts or working units, which provide optimum effectiveness in terms of current situations, and circumstances governing deployment.

- Supervises and coordinates the preparation and presentation of an annual budget for an assigned division; directs the implementation of the division's budget; plans for and reviews specifications for new or replacement equipment.

- Directs the development and maintenance of systems for records and legal documents that provide for the proper evaluation, control and documentation of division operations.

- Prepares and submits periodic reports to the Chief Deputy regarding an assigned division's activities and prepares a variety of other reports as appropriate.

- Meets with elected or appointed officials, other Law Enforcement officials, community and business representatives and the public on all aspects of the Sheriff's Office activities.

- Attends conferences and meetings to keep abreast of current trends in the field; represents the Sheriff's Office in a variety of local, county, state and other meetings.

- Cooperates with county, state and federal law enforcement officers as appropriate where activities of the Sheriff's Office are involved.

- Ensures that laws and ordinances are enforced and that the public peace and safety is maintained.

- Determines strategic forecasts for an assigned division through prioritizing projects and activities and preparing long and short-term plans and recommendations.

- Performs all duties and functions of the Assigned Duty Commander (ADC), as stipulated in the Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) manual.

- Oversees the adequate staffing of personnel by reviewing, monitoring, approving and/or denying requests for leave, overtime, compensatory time and training.

- Ensures that employees adhere to departmental directives and the SOP at all times; documents violations and administers disciplinary action as needed.

- Evaluates in-service and continuing education opportunities for staff to ensure the maximum quality of service; makes recommendations in regard to divisional training needs.

- Ensures division compliance with applicable local ordinance and code, state statue and federal laws and regulations that govern the activities of the division.

- Promotes a safe working environment for all employees through various activities, including, but not limited to, safety awareness education, review and recommendation of safety policies, enforcement of safety procedures and reporting work-related accidents.

- Completes or reviews finding reports concerning actions of employees within the assigned division; responsible for the review of findings on internal investigations conducted on divisional personnel.

- Attends Sheriff's Office meetings, answers inquire and makes recommendations pertaining to the functions of an assigned division.

- Assists in the implementation of an active public relations program, to include providing information to the media, conducting press releases, addressing the concerns of citizens' groups and representatives of organizations and making public addresses and appearances, in accordance with departmental policy.

- Answers inquiries from the general public; receives citizen complaints and handles situations and/or refers individuals to appropriate sources for resolution.

- When assigned, serves on specialty units.

D. MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- Must posses all qualifications of deputy, sergeant, and lieutenant.

- Must have nine (9) years of experience as a Deputy Sheriff, including two (2) years of experience as a lieutenant, with the Sarpy County Sheriff's Office and have successfully completed the probationary period.

- If a promotional test is being offered, a deputy sheriff may take the promotional test for the rank of captain if he or she has seven (7) or more years' experience as a Sarpy County deputy sheriff on the date the vacancy occurs. However, to be eligible for promotion, the following is required on the date of the vacancy: Must have nine (9) years of experience as a deputy sheriff for Sarpy County; must be a lieutenant for Sarpy County and held that position for at least two (2) years. For example, a lieutenant with eight (8) years of experience may take the promotional test but is not eligible to fill the existing vacancy because he or she lacks nine (9) years of experience as a Sarpy County deputy sheriff. The lieutenant, however, will be eligible for any other captain vacancy that occurs after he or she meets the experience requirements.

E. NECESSARY KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Ability to plan, assign, direct and supervisor the work of subordinates.

- Extensive knowledge of and ability to utilize supervisory and management skills and techniques.

- Knowledge of and ability to apply information pertaining to personnel administration, i.e., employment hiring practices, discrimination, sexual harassment, ADA, etc.

- Ability to enforce departmental policies, federal, state and local regulations with firmness, tact and impartiality.

- Ability to prepare an annual budget for an assigned division.

- Ability to utilize sound independent judgment in stressful and emergency situations; analyze situations quickly and objectively and to adopt quick, effective and reasonable courses of action with due regard to the surrounding hazards and circumstances.

- Ability to make complex, difficult decisions and to develop plans for the safe, efficient, effective, and legal accomplishments of tasks required to protect life, safety and property of citizens, to enforce applicable laws and to serve the public.

- Ability to prepare and supervise the preparation of clear, accurate and comprehensive recommendations and reports.

- Ability to meet situations analytically and objectively and record them in a clear, concise oral and written form.

- Ability to direct personnel under his/her command and assure that the division for which he/she is responsible functions at an optimal level.

- Ability to study, research, and recommend to the Sheriff the personnel and fiscal records needed for efficient and effective operation of his/her assigned division.

F. SELECTION GUIDELINES:

Formal testing through the Merit Commission, which may include a written test, scenarios, panel questioning and/or any other requirements as set forth by the testing authority. Sit before a promotion board; have personnel file and training file reviewed.
