CHAPTER TITLE GENERAL	RESOURCES FOP CONTRACT
SUBJECT TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT	CROSS REFERENCE

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish the process for transfer of deputies within and between divisions and the assignment of deputies to full-time and part-time specialty positions and Auxiliary Units.

II. Policy:

The Sarpy County Sheriff's Office shall maintain a process for the transfer and assignment of deputies that is consistent with the FOP contract and when possible based upon employees' performance. The Administrative Division shall be responsible for the coordination of all transfers and assignments to specialty units. The Sheriff shall make the final decision regarding all transfers and assignments and may modify any minimum requirements for any specialty position.

III. Procedure:

A. Transfer: The following process shall be used for the transfer of employees within and between divisions.

1. Bi-Annual Shift Change: Twice per year, the Sheriff's Office shall have scheduled shift changes.

a) At least forty-five (45) days prior to each bi-annual shift change, the Assistant Administrative Commander shall distribute bid sheets allowing deputies to request day or night assignments.

b) Bid sheets must be returned to the Assistant Administrative Commander by the due date listed. Failure to return bid sheets by the deadline may result in a change in assignment.

c) If an employee is scheduled to transfer at a scheduled shift change, he or she shall be notified at least fourteen (14) days prior to the transfer.

2. Transfers Not Occurring at Shift Change: Any vacancy or vacancies occurring between scheduled shift changes may be filled at the discretion of the Sheriff provided the employee or employees affected are provided at least twenty-four (24) hours notice prior to any change in assignment.

3. Transfers within Divisions: Division commanders may transfer employees within his or her own division between shifts so long as the employees' preference for days or nights is considered.

a) If a division commander transfers an employee to a different shift, he or she shall notify the Assistant Administrative Commander in writing at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the transfer.

b) Employees affected shall be notified at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the transfer.

B. Specialty Unit Selection Process: The following process shall be used for the selection of full-time and part-time specialty unit positions:

1. Notification of Administrative Division: Division or unit commanders with specialty unit position vacancies shall notify the Assistant Administrative Commander in writing of the vacancy. The notification shall be at least thirty (30) days prior to the date the commander wishes the position to be filled unless the vacancy was caused by an unforeseen situation.

2. Posting: The Assistant Administrative Commander shall post the vacancy at least fifteen (15) days prior to selection interviews to include emailing all sworn personnel regarding the vacancy. The posting shall include any minimum requirements and the deadline for submission of applications. The posting shall also include any additional selection procedures (e.g. physical testing, firearms qualification, etc.) and dates for these procedures, if applicable.

3. Application: Sworn personnel interested in the position and who meet the minimum requirements shall complete a written Position Application for consideration. The application shall include the qualities, skills, and training the employee possesses that he or she believes qualifies him or her for the position.

a) Supervisor's Recommendation: The application shall be forwarded to the applicant's immediate supervisor for a recommendation.

(1) The applicant's supervisor shall provide the employee a Shift Transfer Recommendation form within five (5) days of the employee's request.

(2) If the applicant has been in his or her current assignment less than ninety (90) days, he or she must request a recommendation from his or her previous immediate supervisor.

(3) The applicant may request a recommendation from any of the following additional supervisors:

(a) A part-time specialty unit supervisor (e.g. Emergency Service Unit, Search and Rescue Unit, Crisis Negotiations Unit).

(b) A previous immediate supervisor who supervised the applicant within the last two (2) years.

b) Application Submission: The applicant shall submit his or her application and supervisor recommendation(s) to the Assistant Administrative Commander on or before the posted deadline.

4. Interview Scheduling: On the application deadline date, the Assistant Administrative Commander shall provide all applications and accompanying supervisor recommendations to the appropriate division or unit commander. The division or unit commander or his or her designee shall schedule interviews with all qualifying applicants. Applicants shall be provided with a minimum of five (5) days notice prior to any interview. The Assistant Administrative Commander shall be notified of the interview date(s).

a) If a large number of applications are received or very few applications are received, the division or unit commander may make a written request to the Sheriff and Chief Deputy to modify the minimum requirements. With approval of the Sheriff, the modified minimum requirements may be used to limit the number of applicants receiving interviews. Any applicant not receiving an interview shall be notified in writing of the modified minimum requirements.

b) Prior to scheduling interviews, the division or unit commander may also request applicants reapply and provide more detailed or specific information relating to the position (e.g. training, skills, etc.).

5. Interview: Applicants shall participate in a structured oral interview before an interview board. The interview board may include, but shall not be limited to: the division or unit commander, the assistant division or unit commander, a division or unit supervisor and any other personnel deemed appropriate by the division or unit commander. The interview shall be monitored by a member of the Administration Division.

6. Document Review: The division or unit commanders shall review the applicants' personnel files, training files, transfer and assignment file and performance evaluation files. Information contained in the files may be discussed during the interview.

7. Selection: The division or unit commander shall rank those applicants who meet the minimum requirements utilizing the structured interview and any other approved testing (firearms, written test, physical test, etc.).

a) The division or unit commander shall submit the ranked list of all applicants and his or her recommendation for selection to the Assistant Administrative Commander within two (2) days of the final interview date. Unit commanders of part-time units (e.g. Sarpy County SWAT, SARU, Bike Patrol, etc.) are not required to fill vacant positions and may leave such positions unfilled for an indefinite period of time.

b) The Assistant Administrative Commander shall forward the list of applicants and the recommendation to the Sheriff through the Chief Deputy for final selection. The Sheriff shall make the final selection within five (5) days after submission by the division or unit commander. If the Sheriff is unavailable, the Chief Deputy shall make the final decision.

c) The Assistant Administrative Commander shall immediately notify the division or unit commander of the Sheriff's selection.

d) The division or unit commander may elect to notify the selected employee(s) and the non-selected applicants.

e) The Assistant Administrative Commander shall provide formal notification in writing to all of the applicants and all of the appropriate supervisors, command officers, and staff support personnel within three (3) days of the Sheriff's final decision.

8. Additional Selections: Additional selections may be made from the ranked list for up to six (6) months (eighteen months (18) for the Emergency Service Unit) from the date of the initial selection(s). If an additional vacancy occurs within six (6) months (eighteen months (18) for the Emergency Service Unit) of selection, the division/unit commander may notify the Assistant Administrative Commander of the vacancy and make a written recommendation for selection for the position from the previous ranked list.

The additional selection process shall follow the procedures as described in section B.7 above. If a division/unit commander would like to conduct a new interview process to create a new ranked list during the six (6) month (or eighteen months (18)) period, he or she shall make a written request to the Sheriff and Chief Deputy detailing the reasons for a new interview process. With permission of the Sheriff and Chief Deputy, the division/unit commander my conduct a new interview process following the procedures as described in section B.1 above.

C. Separation Guidelines:

1. If an employee wishes to resign from an Auxiliary Unit, he or she shall be responsible for notifying the appropriate Auxiliary Unit Commander.

2. After notifying the Auxiliary Unit Commander, the employee shall send a resignation memorandum to the Auxiliary Unit Commander, Administrative Commander, Assistant Administrative Commander, Assistant Office Manager-Payroll, Accounts Payable Manager and Account Clerk Supervisor-Warrants Unit.

3. The Administrative Commander shall place a copy of the resignation memorandum in the employees personnel file and update the Auxiliary Unit Tracking Log.

4. The Auxiliary Unit Commander shall make arrangements with the separating employee to return any issued auxiliary unit equipment.
