CHAPTER TITLE ROAD PATROL		RESOURCES
SUBJECT DIVISION STRUCTURE		CROSS REFERENCE P-1300 SHIFT AND DISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish the direct lines of supervision and responsibility for the Road Patrol Division and clarify the chain of command for the division.

II. Policy:

A. The Road Patrol Division shall be under the direct command of the Road Patrol Commander who shall have the rank of Captain.

B. The Road Patrol Division shall have three (3) lieutenants:

1. The Special Services Commander shall have command over the Special Services Unit and the Mental Health Unit.

2. One (1) Shift Watch Commander shall have command over (A) Shift and (C) Shift Road Patrol.

3. One (1) Shift Watch Commander shall have command over (B) Shift and (D) Shift Road Patrol.

4. (A) Shift Watch Commander shall have command over the FTO Program.

C. Two sergeants shall supervise each shift (A-D).

1. Each shift sergeant shall have overall responsibility for an area of the county and those deputies assigned to that area (i.e. East and West).

2. Both sergeants have equal authority, accountability and responsibility.

3. If only one sergeant is on duty, he or she shall have responsibility for the entire county.

4. If a sergeant leaves his or her area of responsibility to assist in the other area, the sergeant originally responsible for the call shall remain in command unless relieved by a command officer.

5. In the event of a pursuit the sergeant responsible for the deputy shall be responsible for the pursuit regardless of its location.

6. Individual Development Plans (IDP's) shall be a shared responsibility for both sergeants.

7. Roll call shall be conducted on a rotational basis established by the sergeants assigned to each shift.

D. The School Resource Unit and Special Services Unit shall report to the Special Services Unit Supervisor.
