SUBJECT CALLS FOR SERVICE	CROSS REFERENCE P-3410 RESPONSE STATUS P-3500 COMMUNICATIONS PROCEDURES P-4800 CRIME INVESTIGATION P-4810 CRIME SCENE G-9200 COMMAND STAFF NOTIFICATION

I. Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for deputies responding to calls for service within the community.

II. Policy:

It is the policy of the Sarpy County Sheriff's Office that all requests made by the citizens of Sarpy County shall be handled as quickly and thoroughly as possible. Calls for service are assignments given to a deputy by the Communications Division via the radio or the mobile data computer system in response to receiving a request or complaint from a citizen. Calls for service occupy the majority of the patrol deputies' time and may involve any conceivable type of incident resulting directly or indirectly from crimes, accidents, matters of a civil nature, or natural phenomena. Deputies must realize that their contact on calls for service may be the first and only time a citizen will have contact with the Sheriff's Office. The finesse and expertise of the deputy will mold the views and opinions of the citizen towards law enforcement in general and toward the Sarpy County Sheriff's Office specifically.

III. Procedure:

A. Matters of a Civil Nature-Deputy Responsibilities:

1. Many calls for service are not of an emergency nature and do not involve violations of the law. Often citizens are requesting assistance or simply advice and counsel.

2. Deputies may use sound judgment to resolve these "civil matters."

3. Deputies may complete an information report if requested by the citizen regarding a "civil matter." Citizens are often simply requesting documentation regarding their complaint.

4. If the situation persists, the deputy should recommend the citizen contact his or her attorney.

B. Preserve the Peace: Preserve the peace calls shall be handled in the following manner:

1. Communications will determine the nature of the preserve the peace call. Deputies may require the reporting party to meet them in a neutral location, if more information related to the call is needed.

2. When answering preserve the peace calls involving individuals subject to a protection order or no contact bond, the responding deputies shall not facilitate contact between the restricted individuals. In these cases, the deputies should contact the requesting party and suggest alternate methods of retrieving property (e.g. speak to a private attorney, make arrangements with friends or family members, etc.). If the RP refuses to cooperate with alternative methods, then the shift supervisor shall be contacted. This policy shall not preclude a response to calls where a disturbance or other crime is currently in progress.

3. Parties requesting a preserve the peace presence should be advised that deputies may stand by for only ten (10) minutes unless expressly directed by the shift supervisor or a command officer.

4. In cases of child exchange, parties should be directed to conduct the exchange in a public place without the presence of deputies unless specific information is obtained by the shift supervisor indicating a high probability for a disturbance or other criminal activity.

C. Disregarding an Assigned Call for Service: Deputies may disregard a call for service only under the following conditions:

1. Communications assigns the deputy a new call for service that has a higher priority. The deputy shall return to complete the initial call when the higher priority situation is resolved, unless another deputy has been assigned the call.

2. Another deputy assigned to the same district volunteers to take the call.

3. A shift supervisor instructs Communications to assign another deputy.

D. Crimes in Progress-Deputy Responsibilities: Some calls for service involve crimes in progress. Generally, these calls shall be handled on an "urgent" status (P-3410 Response Status):

1. In-progress crimes involving threats to life are of primary importance; additional caution should be used responding to crimes involving property only.

2. Deputies should avoid using emergency lights and sirens when approaching the scene.

3. Upon Arrival-Deputy Responsibilities:

   a) Upon arrival, the deputy shall determine if the suspect is still on scene.

   b) If the suspect is still on scene, the deputy, if possible, shall wait for back-up units prior to making contact.

   c) If the suspect is no longer on location, the deputy shall advise Communications that the scene is "signal 88" (see P-3500 Communication Procedures).

   d) The deputy shall render any necessary medical aid and/or summon rescue personnel.

   e) The deputy shall obtain a description of the suspect(s) and any vehicles involved and a direction of travel, if known.

   f) The deputy shall broadcast this information as soon as possible to other responding deputies.

   g) The deputy shall follow the crime investigation procedures. (P-4800 Crime Investigation)

   h) The deputy shall secure the crime scene, if necessary (see P-4810 Crime Scene).

   i) The deputy shall complete the initial offense report.

4. Crimes in Progress-Supervisor Responsibilities:

   a) The shift supervisor shall respond to the call.

b) The shift supervisor shall determine if an investigator is needed at the scene (P-4800 Crime Investigation).

c) The shift supervisor shall notify the on-duty watch commander or the A.D.C. in cases of serious felony crimes (G-9200 Command Staff Notification).

E. Calls of Unknown Trouble: Generally calls for unknown trouble shall be dispatched as a 911 hang-up call and shall be handled in the following manner:

1. The call shall be approached as if a felonious crime is involved.

2. Two deputies shall be dispatched to the call. The first arriving deputy may cancel the second unit after determining the nature of the call does not involve a felonious crime.

F. Calls of a Non- Law Enforcement Nature:

1. Generally, Road Patrol deputies will be the first ones on the scene of any kind of emergency, e.g. fire, medical, flooding, road hazard etc. When arriving at these types of incidents, they should:

a) Assess the situation and notify dispatch of any outside resources needed, e.g. fire/medical, highway department, public utilities, etc.

b) Notify the Acting Duty Commander or Road Patrol Commander, if appropriate.
